Editorial

(This letter is addressed to the Student Senate in undirected protest of the fiscal policies of its immediate predecessor.)

Dear senators:

As you are all now well adjusted to the climate and procedures of the body to which you have been elected, our hope is to acquaint you with some of its immediate history.

If there is a single characteristic which can be identified with the MSC Student Senate in recent years, it is discontinuity. Despite the mechanics of our student government, which provide for an orderly passing of authority from year to year, the sense of purpose and direction themselves must emanate from people, not plans alone. Too few senators have recognized a need for any such type of order. Most would not argue with the idea in a distilled form, but their actions have betrayed their true concept on how we are to be governed.

Enough of generalization; we shall come to the point. Last year's Student Senate attained a record of appropriations which suggests that at least a majority of its members had no concept whatsoever of the purpose or value of the funds entrusted to their care. If indeed money is to be expropriated from the individual students and delivered into the hands of their representatives, that body of representatives should be responsible to the individuals for its wise and timely dispensation.

The original intent of the activity fee was to provide for the academic and social enrichment of the students of Missouri Southern College. This objective, as major as it may be, has rather obviously been pushed into the darkest corners of some very dark minds; if indeed, those of last year's momentary majority are to contend that their decisions were justifiable.

An examination of last year's books reveals that a total of $1,000 was doled out to interest clubs, primarily for aid in sending their delegates to conventions. This is of questionable value to the students of our institution. Of those receiving funds, several deserve special mention. The Young Republicans and Young Democrats each received $200 to attend the Missouri Interscholastic Student Legislature in Jefferson City. The merit of this project in itself is very questionable. Despite the favorable publicity that this endeavor receives throughout the state, the individuals who are supposed to learn at this event have an unwavering habit of transforming its primary goal into a gala statewide social event. Furthermore, the Young Democrats had no actual need for Senate financing of their trip, as when they arrived in Jefferson City and found themselves with more than enough money, they decided to distribute $10 to each of the 14 delegates for "personal expenses." Others to receive appropriations were CIRUNA, Biology Club, SNEA, and Circle K.

Outside the fact that funding interest clubs is not in keeping with the primary objective of benefitting the student body as a whole, Senate policies on finance were bent, spindled and mutilated. The beginning of the school year had seen a Finance Committee policy adopted that insisted interest clubs were to be funded only on a matching basis. Several times this policy was totally ignored. Most appalling, however, is the resemblance of this whole idea of interest club funding to the kind of "pork barrel" legislating which predominates state and federal circles. The figures may be much smaller, but the principles are very much the same.

Over $1,500 was spent on sending senators to conventions. The Association of Student Government convention cost the students over $1,000. For this outlay the Student Senate received an oral report approximately two months after the convention. Several reasons stand out for the high cost of representation at this event. First, the two senators who flew to it went — not student standby, not coach class reserved — but first class. The registration fee, which covered most of the meals for the week, came to $360. For personal expenses, the delegates were handed a blank check. The high cost of living in the Las Vegas area of the U.S. accounts for the rest of the bill.

Another convention in Washington, D.C. cost MSC $586. It was attended by the then-president of the Student Senate in August before school had started. This trip brings up a question of due process, as there was no way for this expenditure to be approved in advance.

The most worthwhile and sensible project carried out by last year's Student Senate was the leadership conference held in early August. Here again, however, an exorbitant price tag spoiled the picture. This undertaking was a $1,000 affair. Typical of the waste of money was the rooming arrangement. Two people to a room is much more conducive, so we have been told, to private parties.

The most startling realization of last year had to have been when the Student Senate became a disciple of charity. Early in the year the Senate voted, with only two dissenting votes, to appropriate $100 for the Pakistan Relief Fund. This was brought to the Student Court for a ruling on its legality, and it was determined by the justices that there is no limitation on the power of the Senate to dispense its funds. Again, very late in the year, student funds were applied to the causes of charity. Following the devastation of the tornado of May 5, 1971, the Senate saw fit to rally to the cause of area disaster victims, in the specific amount of $650.

In our opinion, this $750 in charity funds represents the most disturbing expenditure of the school year. These may have been very just and deserving causes of contributions, but the source of contributions is entirely questionable.

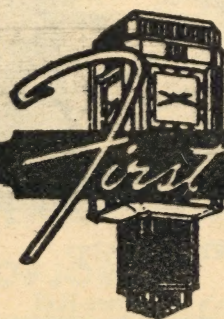

Surely no one would admit to the justice and morality of robbing one individual in order to aid another. Clearly, the end does not justify the means. Likewise, the student activity fee has never been represented as a contribution to charity, was not intended to serve that purpose, and should not be made to meet such ends. To do so is clearly a violation not only of the trust and faith of the students, but also of the Regents who approved the inception of a student activity fee. If the Student Senate felt that a worthwhile charity existed, the proper course would be to establish a fund and collect voluntary contributions from senators, and from students. Instead, a very wrong course of action was pursued.

The really sad aspect of this financial situation is that there are no boundaries for the dispensation of student monies. Although the Student Senate's share of the activity fee is a mere 20 per cent, the majority of it was surely wasted — used to the advantage of a few.

Several courses of action are possible to prevent similar mistakes from occurring this year. Most expedient would be for the Senate to adopt rules to more sensibly govern appropriations. It is with this hope that we address you representatives of the student body. We await your action.

LETTERS

UNFAIR???

At the October 21st meeting of the Student Senate, a resolution was brought up by Kevin Herd, the freshman class president, to allocate money to each of the four classes to cover expenses so that they might enter a queen candidate and participate in the Homecoming activities.

The minute amount of $25 was the debating point. Twenty-five dollars out of the $20,000 appropriated for and paid by the students of MSC. The $20,000 is a produce of the five dollar activity fee tacked on to each students tuition this year. The actual percentage of this cost out of the $20,000 is .00125, a very small amount that would be of great help in paying expenses. Considerable debate followed this proposal and it seems that YOU the students have elected some tight fisted and senile people to the Senate.

The motion failed which did not rightly deserve to fail. If people are so apathetic about a matter such as this, then how are they going to be of any help to the college, or the STUDENTS in matters of more importance?? If the Senate does not support the students, then HOW can the students support the Senate. Those favoring the motion were Kevin Herd, Mike Hunt, Roland Boykin, Dave Efird, Jim Robertson, Irma Woodward, Terry Sherwood, Ray Dell Willard, plus six or seven other members. Most important of all, Dr. Belk, who gave his comments to several people after the meeting had adjourned, favored the proposed resolution as well ... makes you stop and think, doesn't it!! The rest of the Senators either abstained (in other words these are people who cannot make up their minds) or voted no.

IF YOU THINK YOUR INTERESTS WERE UNJUSTLY VIOLATED, THEN GET AHOLD OF YOUR SENATOR AND RAISE H!E!L!L! WITH HIM.

MSC KA Chapter Becomes Official

By DAVID EFIRD

A week long of activities culminated on Saturday, Oct. 16 and Sunday, Oct. 17 with the initiation of a new chapter of the Kappa Alpha Order. This new Kappa Alpha Chapter will become the seventh chapter of the order in Missouri. Other chapters in Missouri include M.U. at Columbia, M.U. at Rolla, SMS, Drury, Westminster and William Jewell College.

The week of activities began on Monday morning at six a.m. October the eleventh at the ECM building. This meeting plus the following three mornings constituted a schooling of the members by Tom Tune, the assistant secretary of the order. Upon completion of the four day, two hour schooling periods, a test was given on Thursday after final remarks had been made. The following day, October 15, a banquet was held at the Holiday Inn in the Spanish Main Room for the members plus the members of the chapters from Drury and Westminster College. Distinguished guests who were also in attendance were Senior Council Reynolds Cheney, a member of the executive council out of Atlanta, Georgia, Karl Moulder the province commander of Missouri, Tom Tune the assistant secretary, as well as the MSC school officials and their wives—Dr. Leon Billingsly, Dr. Glen Dolence, Dr. Floyd Belk, Dr. Edward Phinney and Dean Hill. Also present were Ron Robson and Ron Unser, who gave the Benediction, and various members of the K.A. alumni here in Joplin and the surrounding areas.

During the banquet, the audience listened to speeches given by Mr. Cheney, Dr. Moulder, and Dr. Billingsly, after which the official charter was presented to chapter president Randy Scholze by Dr. Moulder. At this time Mr. L. T. (Bunny) Newton was appointed and given a plaque by Dr. Moulder to be the Alumni Advisor of the chapter. Also appointed as faculty advisors were Mr. Marion Sloan and Dr. Clark Guilliams. In addition to the presentation of the charter and appointments, Dr. Moulder presented a painting to the new chapter of Robert E. Lee, the inspirator of Kappa Alpha.

At seven a.m. the following morning at the First Baptist Church of Joplin, the initiation program began. Dr. Billingsly was the first to be initiated as the first K.A. on Missouri Southern's campus followed by faculty advisor Marion Sloan and alumni member and MSC graduate Dale Connley. The eighteen members of the chapter were then initiated whose names are listed here, Randy Scholze, Larry Poteet, Jeff Dymott, Jim Darnell, David Efird, Scott Taylor, Tom Hubbard, Rick Lewis, Chuck Mosler, Dave Richard, Joe Kelly, Larry Burkhardt, Mike Hunt, Randy Richard, Gary Sorensen, Terry Titus, Mike Williams, Gary Wilson, and Bob Wynne.

Sunday, Oct. 17 at two p.m. at the ECM building, the eighteen pledges of Delta Pi were sworn in. Upon completion of this, a call was placed to the Knight Commander of Kappa Alpha, Richard T. Feller in Washington, D.C. He expressed his sincere approval and best wishes to the Chapter and gave a few words of advice to the members. After the phone conversation, a model chapter meeting was set up by the K.A. chapter of SMS. During the session, officers of Delta Pi were installed. The officers are the following, President, Raney Scholze; Vice President, Larry Poteet; Recording Secretary, Bob Wynne; Corresponding Secretary, Dave Richard; Historian, David Efird; Treasurer, Jeff Dymott; Parliamentarian, Scott Taylor; Sergeant at Arms, Rick Lewis and Director of Initiation, Gary Sorensen.

Alumni Club Schedules Activities

The Alumni Club has slated many activities for the next few weeks. On Friday, October 29 the Alumni Reunion Banquet will be held. The buffet dinner will be held at 6:00 p.m. in the College Union Ballroom. Joe Sullens, Managing Editor of the Joplin Globe and a Joplin Junior College alumni, will be guest speaker. Homecoming Queen Candidates will be introduced to the alumni at this time.

Miss Laura Lee Schooler and Miss Patricia Storm are the latest recipients of the Alumni Association Scholarships. Each scholarship was for two-hundred dollars and is to be paid in equal installments at the beginning of each semester.

The Alumni-Senior Award will be presented to a member of the Spring graduating class. The recipient must have demonstrated interest in homecoming activities and alumni programs. Consideration will be shown to the winner's service and leadership qualities that he has displayed in the community or on campus.

New Exhibit Scheduled For Art Buffs

A new exhibit of MSC student art will be on display each of the following months in the Atelier workshop and Gallery at the Art Building. Students may enter any of their current works at no charge in the show, which will feature a $25 purchase award to the best of the selections.

First Children Theatre Set at Barn Theatre

The first Children's Theatre production of the 1971-72 season is now in production at Missouri Southern College. "Androcles and the Lion," directed by Mrs. Joyce Bowman, will be presented Saturday, November 6 at North Junior High School in Joplin at 1:00 p.m. and a repeat performance at 3:00 p.m. On Saturday, November 13 the two performances will be presented at South Junior High School at 1:00 and 3:00 p.m.

"Androcles and the Lion" is a commedia dellarte version of an Italian fable. Full of action, humor and narrow escapes, it is sure to please children of all ages.

Using the stereotyped characters of the Italian comedy form, the play takes advantage of an old reliable plot. "Pantalone," an old miser, seeks to prevent the marriage of his beautiful niece "Isabella" to her lover "Lelio." "Pantalone" assigns the swaggering, boasting Captain to guard her. "Androcles," Pantalone's slave, sympathizes with the lovers and with the help of the "Lion" seeks a way to get "Isabella" and "Lelio" away from "Pantalone." How a talking wall gets into the act only the players know.

General admission for the production is 50 cents.

The cast includes Pantalone (Gary Sorenson), Androcles (Greg Kissel) Lion (Joyce McBroom), Isabella (Julie Dale), Lelio (Mike Lang) and the Captain (Steve Searcy).

This humorous musical should be enjoyed by children of all ages.

Joplin Parkwood Wins CIRUNA's Model UN

Joplin Parkwood High School took first place honors in Missouri Southern's first Model Security Council sponsored by CIRUNA October 22 in the College Union ballroom. Fifteen area high schools and Cottey College of Nevada were represented by six-member delegations each playing the part of a member nation of the United Nations Security Council.

Second and third place trophies went to Neosho High and Cottey College, respectively, and Memorial High received an honorable mention.

The Parkwood crew represented the Soviet Union, the Neosho five dramatized China's role, and the all-female Cottey congregation represented France. Memorial played Great Britain.

CIRUNA President Dan Koch served as Secretary-General of the day-long event. After a morning of block-caucusing, the assembly broke up into three groups each dealing with one of the researched resolution topics: "Admission of the People's Republic of China into the U.S.," chaired by Don Hoops and Gary Nodler; "World Ecology," headed by Steve Scarcy; and "The Middle-East," under the gavel of.

Secret and roving Judges of the event were History professor Robert Markman, Social Science Head Charles Evans, Ciruna Vice-President Ed Duff and Roland Boykin. Delegations were judged on how well they acted the part of their assigned nations, manner of diplomacy, and knowledge of parliamentary procedure. Delegates were anonymously observed from the time they arrived and during the rest of the day's activities.

Each delegation was coached by a faculty advisor and two MSC student advisors from Ciruna or the political science and history departments. Each delegate participating received a certificate of achievement.

Secretary-General Koch greeted the assembly of delegates in five languages. The Delegates were welcomed by MSC President Dr. Leon Billingsly, Dean Dr. Edward S. Phinney, Professor Charles Evans, head of the Social Sciences Department, and Mrs. Anneta St. Clair, political science professor and Ciruna advisor.

The opening registration was followed by what might be described as spirited caucusing and lively diplomacy.

The MSC Model Security Council will become an annual event.

YRs Have High Goals

The Young Republican's Club goal for this school year is to prove that the Republican Party is a body which can bring about change. They are striving to set up a program of speakers that will draw students to the meetings. Some of the names suggested to be written to include Senator John Tower and Robert Dole, chairman of the National Republican Committee.

To prove they are shooting for the big ones, they also plan to send a letter of request to Senator James Buckley. Also, they are interested in drawing young Missourians by inviting young Missouri politicians such as Kit Bond and John Danforth.

This year they also plan a registration drive on campus to register the 18-year-olds.

Stuart Hoover, president of the MSC club, feels that not enough 18-year-olds have taken advantage of their new opportunity.

Every year college students participate in the MISL Program Missouri Intercollegiate Student Legislature — and the Young Republicans send delegates to the event.

The group also sends delegates to Jefferson City to witness action on the floors of the House and Senate of the State of Missouri.

Dr. Keller Speaks To Biology Buffs

Dr. Leland Keller, the premedical and premedical advisor at Kansas State College at Pittsburg presented an "Illustrated lecture on the History of Medicine from Antiquity to Anesthesia" to an audience of about forty students and faculty, Thursday October 21st in Reynolds Hall. The lecture was sponsored by the MSC Biology Club.

Dr. Keller has been a member of the Department of Biology at KSC since 1957, where he teaches courses in anatomy, physiology, histology, embryology and neurology. He received his B.A. Degree at Wichita State University and his Ph.D. at the University of Kansas where he majored in anatomy. In addition to serving as the pre med and dental adviser, he is a member of the Association of American Medical Colleges. He is also a board member of the Crawford County Heart Association and the County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

His presentation consisted of covering the history of medicine from 500,000 years ago to the use of ether as an anesthetic. Dr. Keller traced in a logical and related fashion the events through the primitive, Egyptian, Greek, Roman and Medieval eras which lead to medical practice in the mid-1800's. Woven into his program was anatomy and physiology along with religion, magic and mythology. Along with the story a slide presentation was presented. Most of the projected views of 60 to 80 slides are seldom seen in most texts of biology and medicine. Views included the first medicine man, the first amputation, the first recording of blood pressure, the first blood transfusion and the first use of ether.

Dr. Keller's visit was both enjoyable and stimulating to all. Future plans for the Biology club include a talk on the fossil beds of Kansas to be presented by Dr. Earl Sam Gibson of the MSC Biology Department. This will be presented at the next scheduled meeting to be held November 2nd at 1:00 in room S-201 at Reynolds Hall. This talk is designed to orient the members in the collection and identification of various fossils which hopefully will be found when the club goes on a Fossil Hunt November 7th.

Lions face tough slate

Less than a month from now the Arkansas Tech Wonder Boys from Russellville, Ark., saunter into Joplin's favorite circus act, the Lion Cage, to engage the Missouri Southern Lions in the opening of the 1971-2 basketball season.

Last year's Lions compiled a strong winning record of 18-6. The lone major disappointment came when the Lions fell to Drury College of Springfield on Southern's home court during the Region 16 Playoffs. The Missouri Southern College Lions had been the number one team in Missouri college ball the whole year running. Along with that highlight, Coach Frank Davis was chosen as "Coach of the Year" for the second year in a row.

This year's squad will play a much stronger schedule and several more games over last year. Southern has two tournaments on its agenda starting

The Missouri Southern Lions out-fought the Fighting Ichabods last week, pulling off a 14-10 upset win over previously unbeaten Washburn University.

Washburn, victorious in five contests this season with a seven game winning streak, couldn't penetrate the Lion defense. Rising to the occasion, the Lion defense virtually stymied the Fighting Ichabod rushing attack, stopping WU for a minus-seven yards rushing in the second half; Washburn had only 66 yards on the ground and 79 yards passing for the entire game. Washburn's offense was rated 22nd in the nation for the NAIA with an average of 242 yards per game.

Washburn's defense, which was 23rd in the nation for the NAIA, allowing only 76 yards rushing by their opponents, did just that. The Lion offensive attack mounted only 76 yards rushing and 116 yards passing.

Washburn took advantage of a Lion fumble in the first quarter to take a 7-0 lead when Dale Sample scored on a six-yard run.

Taking advantage of a bad MSC punt, Washburn threatened again, driving to the Southern three-yard line, setting up a first down and goal situation. The Lion front-wall held for four plays forcing Washburn to give up the ball on the one-foot line.

Senior quarterback Mike Sexton lead the Lions on a 99-yard sustained drive, ending when he connected with freshman receiver Simmie Isabell for a 28-yard touchdown pass. Max Mourglia's kick made the score stand at 7-7.

The Ichabods went ahead with 34 seconds left in the first-half as Russ Hill booted a 31-yard field goal.

The Lions were unable to generate any offense in the third quarter; but, in the final stanza, lead by Ray Harding, MSC pushed across the winning score on Mike O'Rourke's 17-yard run. Mourglia's kick was the final MSC point on the scoreboard.

Coach Frazier made these comments on the Washburn game:

"This was the best effort, both offensively and defensively, this year ... This was definitely a team victory ... We took away from Washburn what they did best ... Our goal line defense was outstanding ... We kept making the big plays all night, that is, on third down and long yardage situations, both offensively and defensively ... So many individuals played an outstanding game that it would be hard to pinpoint them all ... One standout though was Bryant Davis who did a fantastic job as a receiver (catching four for 59 yards) ... I'm proud that we could put it all together and win this one."

Junior safety Jack Duda broke a school record against Washburn, intercepting two passes giving him seven for the season which surpasses the record of five set by Bob Snodgrass and Marty Galbraith last year ... MSC's passing duo of Mike Sexton and Ray Harding teamed up to complete 11 of 17 passes. Sexton went seven for 11 for 86 yards while Harding was four of six for 30 yards. Punter Tim Dick kicked his longest punt of the year for 57 yards.

In the second half of the game the Lion defense dropped Ichabod runners nine times for a minus 46 yards. Tackle Charles Hendricks, a 6-3, 245 pound freshman, played his best game of the season, dropping the WU quarterback seven times.

MSC did not fare as well against Arkansas Tech, the No. 2 ranked small college football team in the nation, but the Lions did put up a terrific fight.

The final score was 28-10, but the Russellville, Ark. crew found the going pretty rough against the vaunted MSC defense.

Southern's record is now 2-5, while the Arkansas team sports a 7-0 record.

The MSC defensive crew limited Tech's two top rushers, Benny Shepherd and Larry Brown, to less than 80 yards overland.

with the John Brown University Tourney, November 25-27 and then hosting their own tournament December 21-22. This will be the first year for the Southern Christmas Classic. It's a good home schedule for the Lions as they play at home seven times in a row from December 8 through January 12. The Lion Pack then travels to Kansas City to meet upstate rival Rockhurst. Then back to the home court for three more in a row. Through most of December and January the Southern squad will entertain at home.

Southern's big 6'5" All-American John Thomas leads the list of returning lettermen. John led the team in practically every division last year including scoring and rebounding.

John, a product of Aliquippa High School in Aliquippa, Pa. is a junior this year and has one more year of eligibility left. John will no doubt be a top candidate for NAIA All-American honors again this year.

Big Bill Wagner will be the other mainstay on the boards along with John. Bill was the number two scorer for the Lions last year averaging 14 points a game. Bill, from Republic, Mo., has put on some weight over the summer break and this should help his board game considerably. 6'5" Wagner will also co-captain the team during the season.

The other big man back for Southern is Tom Agnello. Tom, a 6'6" forward, is the most improved ball player for the squad. His consistency will help the team's total continuity. Tom's play could make the big difference for the Lion attack.

Probably the main concern for Coach Frank Davis is his guards. The only returning letterman that logged any playing time is 6'2" Steve Spratt. Steve started the first half of the 70-71 season but gave way to Leroy Bowie and Craig Kuzirian. Steve will be the other co-captain for the Lions.

Coming off the junior varsity where he scored better than 20 points a game is Lou Ziter. Lou is a 6'2" sophomore from Littleton, N.H. where he was an All-American high school player.

The only other player with any playing experience is Jimmy Carter. Jimmy is a Joplin product but has failed to play in a starting role since being at Missouri Southern. Jimmy is a good hustler and has the right attitude to be a good ball player.

Davis has sophomores Mike Vickers and Tom Causey 6'9" and 6'8" respectively to led depth to the Southern front line. A long list of freshmen and transfers will also add to the bench strength.

If Davis can cope with his problems at the guard position he could come up with another contender for the Nationals in Kansas City next March. He will also be able to revenge the defeat at the hands of Drury last February. Southern plays the Panthers twice this season — at home January 8 and in Springfield February 5. It should be an interesting season for both the team and the Southern fans.

J.V. Squad Ends With 2-2 Season

The Missouri Southern College Lions junior varisty ended its first season in competition with a solid win over the Central Missouri State College Mules 14-0.

Quarterback Lennie Fastbinder found end Dan Evans early in the first quarter for a sixty yard pass play to put the Lions ahead 7-0. That play was the only scoring by either team in the first half. A strong Lion defense held the Mules to virtually no gain throughout the half.

Scoring for the second half was limited to Southern's recovery of a Mule fumble in the end zone. Most of the half was a battle of two determined defenses. However, Warrensburg lost the tilt on the fatal miscue by its offense. Collin Cruse was the player for Southern smothering the ball for the Lion score.

With the 14-0 victory, the Lions ended the season two and two. Not a bad record for its premier season in competitive football. Naturally hopes for next year's season is high as is the case when experience returns to the Lion gridiron.

Chiefs To Invade Lion Country In Homecoming Tilt Saturday

By DAVE RICHARDSON

The confrontation for this 1971 Homecoming football battle will find the Morningside College Chiefs of Sioux City, Iowa invading Joplin's Junge Stadium Saturday afternoon to meet the Missouri Southern College Lions. The afternoon tilt will begin at 2 o'clock and be highlighted by the

Coach Hopes For 5-5 Season

"Our goal is a 5-5 season, and to accomplish this, we must win our next three games." These were the words of head football Coach Jim Frazier Tuesday as he surveyed the rest of the MSC football season. To do this, the Lions must begin with a successful Homecoming game against the Morningside Chiefs of Sioux City, Iowa in a 2:00 Saturday afternoon tussle.

"Morningside ran like crazy their first three games, but key injuries to running backs have caused them bad luck," Frazier said. The Chiefs beat Nebraska-Omaha in their season opener 39-13, Missouri Western 50-7, and Augustana 43-7.

They then lost Little All-American honorable mention quarterback Mike Junck due to an injury, and ever since the Chiefs' fortunes have been dismal. The Iowans have dropped their last four games to North Dakota State, 62-0, South Dakota, 35-6, Northern Iowa, 21-0, and North Dakota, 59-7.

"This is a 'must' game for us," commented Frazier, "We feel it is very important to regroup as to our basic philosophy. It is imperative we win our next three games, especially against Morningside. They are hungry for a victory."

Frazier went on to say that "It being Homecoming adds spice to the game. I am pleased with the team's progress, but disappointed with the mistakes we made against Arkansas Tech. The team's effort allows me to feel we represent MSC well."

Homecoming will mark the first of a series of three afternoon games for the Lions. The Lions displayed their best offensive performance of the season against Arkansas Tech last week, but dropped the decision 28-10 to the number two team in the NAIA.

Morningside sports the thirteenth ranked rushing back in the NAIA in 193 pound Senior tailback Dave Bigler, and 7th ranked pass-receiver Bill Asprey.

Peter Carlesimo is in his fourth year as Fordham's athletic director after 26 years at the University of Scranton.

Frank Schnur, Fordham's soccer coach, is a native of Austria. He's a German instructor at the school.

crowning of the 1971 Homecoming Queen, to take place at halftime. The choice will be made among seven candidates.

The Chiefs boast the number two National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics passing offense in the nation. They are tenth in the nation in total offense. However, the Sioux City team's record is standing at 3-3-0 after the loss of their star quarterback Mike Junck.

Prior to Junck's injury, the Chiefs had compiled a 3 and 0 record. Morningside opened their season with an impressive win over the University of Nebraska at Omaha 39-13 and then rolled over Missouri Western 53-7. The loss of their starting quarterback was strongly evidenced as the tribe dropped three straight. They have fallen to North Dakota State 62-0, South Dakota University 35-6 and the University of Northern Iowa 21-0.

Dave Bigler, candidate for All-American, is leading the Iowa eleven in rushing, averaging almost 130 yards a game. The tailback is 13th in the nation for the first six games in rushing. Not only will the Lions have to stop Bigler but, must also put a damper on the Chiefs split end, Bill Asprey. Asprey leads the Morningside aerial attack averaging 113 yards a game; good enough for 7th in the nation in pass receptions.

The Lion front four will have their hands full in stopping the strong offense of the Chiefs. That job will be met by Charles Hendricks, Wayne Winters, Carl Basler and Jack Varns. The Lion defense has been the backbone of the Missouri Southern games so far this year. Richard Wolfe, John Lukas, Gary Autry, Barry Korner, Doug Efird, Tom Dick have provided the wall in the linebacker position.

The safety position has truly been the Lion standout so far this season. Jack Duda has intercepted seven of nine passes picked-off by the Lion secondary. Helping Duda at the cornerback spots are Marty Galbraith and Jack Wolverton. Hopefully the right combination of personnel will offset the Asprey performance.

The Southern offense has been hot and cold. Leading the offense has been equally distributed at the quarterback position by Mike Sexton and Ray Harding. Both have strong passing arms and good running threats to help them out. Together the two signal callers have completed 68 passes out of 151 attempts.

The two quarterback's favorite receivers have been Tyrone Hill with 12 receptions good for 119 yards, Bryant Davis also with 12 receptions good for 113 yards, and Terron Jackson hauling in 11 passes good for 104 yards.

Terry Starks, Mike Sexton and Larry Perry have run for 229 yards, 174 yards and 139 yards respectively. All three runners are averaging over 3 yards per carry.
